Euthanasia Technician (Review Level)

March 10, 2022

The review level (sometimes referred to as euthanasia recert) can be taken if you have taken your initial training within the last three years and you have not lapsed past the three-year mark.

Though you are legally allowed to take the review level if you have lapsed more than 3 years, please note Humane Educators of Texas policy is that if your last training is more than 6 months lapsed, we require you take the initial level again.
